

DATA USAGE POLICY

The data contained in this Platform is the property of the Recognized Association EvK2CNR and the individual researchers and institutions collaborating within the framework of scientific, technical, and development cooperation projects.

Public Data

All public data available on the Platform are validated data.

The use of this data implies acceptance of the following conditions:

1. Attribution of Ownership:
It is mandatory to acknowledge that the data is the property of the Recognized Association EvK2CNR.
2. Data Acknowledgment:
Any use of the data must include recognition of the Platform and the value of the data in any type of publication (scientific papers, reports, websites, etc.), for example, through the "Acknowledgment" section and/or as a reference.

Confidential Data

Raw data or data with a frequency resolution lower than the published one are confidential. Access to such data is subject to restrictions and will only be granted in specific and justified cases. Requests for access must concern a limited amount of data and will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis. Requests must be sent to: evk2cnr@evk2cnr.org

Acceptance of the Policy

Acceptance of this policy occurs automatically by clicking the "Accept" button.

Violation of the Policy

Any violation of this policy will be considered an infringement of the property rights of the Recognized Association EvK2CNR. In case of a violation, EvK2CNR reserves the right to take all necessary actions to protect its intellectual property and associated rights.
